

TITLE Study Buddies

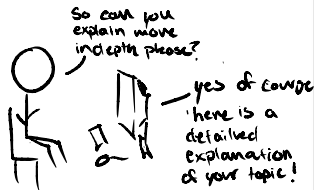

student wants to go to office hours but their schedule conflicts student pulls up Study Buddies and looks for the class they are taking student finds the class they were looking for and gets started right away due to intuitive design student gets stumped but Study Buddies was able to guide them towards the answer student gets good grades because they were able to access flexible course assistance student is happy with a good grade and a deeper understanding of their course content